

Bio for Michele Grosenick:

I have been with KUBE FM in Seattle since beginning my career in 1981. I started as the station's traffic director, moved up through the sales department and am currently its General Manager. Clear Channel bought KUBE FM along with four other stations (KJR AM, KJR FM, KF NK and KNBQ) in 2002. I have been the Market Manager for this group of radio stations since 1998.

I have been named one of Radio Ink's Most Influential Women in Radio for five consecutive years. In 2005, I was named the #1 Market Manager in radio by Radio Ink magazine for markets ranked between 11 and 25. In 2006, I received the Crystal Soundie lifetime achievement award from the Puget Sound Radio Broadcaster's Association for my contributions to Seattle radio throughout my career.

I have been married to my husband Gary for 24 years and have two sons, Connor (17) and Tyler (12).
