

Chad S. Mackay
President & Chief Operating Officer
Mackay Restaurants

Business Background:

Son of proprietor Paul Mackay, Chad Mackay took on the role of president and COO on October 1, 2005. In this role, he is responsible for the day-to-day business operations of Mackay Restaurants.

Mackay will be focused on developing the people and structure to support the continuing expansion of the restaurants. Mackay previously held the position of vice president of business operations.

Prior to Mackay Restaurants, Mackay worked for nine years as a successful business and technology consultant for Arthur Andersen, Onyx Software, Crane Co., and Rapidigm. He consulted with a variety of companies engaged in distribution, manufacturing, sales, and sales planning. He became involved in the restaurant industry over 23 years ago, working at such restaurants as 13 Coins, Landaus, Palomino's and in his father's operations as a busser, server, prep cook, and chef. Mackay is a private pilot, flies a Piper Cherokee, and holds a BA in business administration, Cum Laude, from Seattle University. His wife, Jennifer Mackay, is a tax attorney and mother of their son, Eliot Hamilton Mackay.
